

U3A FRANKSTON INC.

Celebration of Talent 2017

General Information

With the success of the Achievement Awards in 2016, it has been decided to hold a Celebration of Talent in 2017. With the exception of tutors who may not enter into a category in which they teach, all current members of U3A Frankston are welcome to enter. Entries are invited from the categories below:

- Painting:
 - Oils and Acrylics
 - Water Colours and Pastels
- Writing:
 - Short Stories
 - Poetry
- Photography (originals only)
- Craft (best in show)

Details of this competition are available on the website, noticeboards and from the office. Terms and conditions, as well as an entry form are also available from the office.

All entries for this competition must be handed in to U3A Frankston by 1 September 2017 and no late entries will be accepted. Winners will be advised at the Awards Evening to be held on Wednesday, 18 October 2017, and members and their families are invited to come and celebrate. There will be judges for each category, and prizes given to the winners and runners-up of those categories.

Members from Federal and Local Parliament will also be invited to this event, as well as representatives from Frankston City Council, John Paul College, the judges and donors of prizes.

We look forward to seeing lots of entries from our members and a successful Awards Night.
