U3A Frankston – In search of a new home

U3A Frankston has been a part of the Frankston community for over 30 years and is now looking for new facilities to continue to operate and grow into the future.

We have a long and proud history of supporting our older citizens by keeping them involved in both physical and mental activities on a wide range of subjects. These subjects are as wide ranging as Art, Mah Jong, Rambling, Singing, Digital Literacy, Wellbeing, History and Current Affairs. We have over 600 members and offer 80 classes a week. All managed and operated by volunteers. Costs and fees are kept to a minimum.

For the past 10 years, we have had wonderful premises on the campus of John Paul College in McMahons Road. Unfortunately the lease on our present premises comes to an end in 2020.

We need your help to find a new home. We would welcome the opportunity to discuss with anyone who has classroom facilities or administration office space that we could lease from you for a reasonable price.

If you feel you can offer us any suggestions and help, please contact,

- Leonie Price, Office Manager, 0427 831 494
- Bethy Birch, Secretary, 0455 048 855
