

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE

SEARCH FOR ACCOMPANIST & CONDUCTOR TUTORS

The University of the Third Age, usually referred to as U3A, is a not for profit worldwide educational self-help organization. It draws on the wealth of knowledge and experience of its members to set up study groups and to organize recreational activities.

Unfortunately, our long-valued Choir accompanist of over 20 years at U3A Frankston is unable to continue in 2022 and our young conductor of the last few years is, quite rightly, moving onto other music ventures and will not be joining us in 2022. We are therefore in search for an accompanist and conductor for 2022 and beyond.

The U3A Frankston Choir meet at the Uniting Church, High Street, Frankston on Thursdays from 9.30am - 12.00 noon. The choir currently has 50+ members of age 50+ and we sing mostly in SATB harmony. We own a wide repertoire of songs but are open to new directions.

If you are able to fill either of these positions, or know of anyone who might be interested, please contact Liz on 0417 517 498 or the U3A Frankston office on 9770 1042.

U3A Tutors work voluntarily in their classes and activities, but some travel expenses may be available.

Thank you for reading this and we look forward to your responses.
